

Program Standards and Matrix
INITIAL PROGRAMS IN LIBRARY SCIENCE EDUCATION (MINOR)

ND ESPB Standards
50065.1 The program requires study and experiences in information literacy and library media skills. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge. 50065.2 The program requires study and experiences in the library media professional's role to integrate media, materials, and technology into the curriculum. In addition, the program requires study with other types of library and information services to promote intellectual freedom in a democratic society. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge. 50065.3 The program requires study and experiences in assessing needs in the use of media, materials, and technology to support effective instruction. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.4 The program requires study and experiences in using both print and electronic information systems to meet instruction and information needs of students and faculty. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.5 The program requires study and experiences in production of media materials. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.6 The program requires study and experiences in establishing an acquisition process that assures resources are available when needed and in organizing, classifying, and cataloging media materials. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.7 The program requires study and experiences in choosing children's and young adult literature, media, and informational resources in relationship to learner's interests, reading ability, and cultural background. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.8 The program requires study and experiences in the library media professional's role in promoting awareness of the relationship between home and school by developing lifelong reading habits in children and young adults. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.9 The program requires study and experiences in the administration of a school library media center. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

50065.10 The program requires the study of current, appropriate instructional technologies. The program uses varied performance assessments of candidates' understanding and abilities to apply that knowledge.